MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The Successful Candidates.

Monday was an exciting day in Moose Jaw. The majority contest resulted in a signal victory for Mr. Grayson who was elected by a majority of thirty-nine. It is only justice to say the majority was in reality forty-one, for amongst the spoiled ballots were two which showed unquestionably that the intention of the two voters was to vote for Mr. Grayson.

Messrs. Simington, Stunt, Hannah, Neeland, Fysh and Ferguson were elected as councillors.

The following is the result of the voting:—

Simington.....	80
Stunt.....	78
Hannah.....	72
Neeland.....	68
Fysh.....	64
Ferguson.....	56
Palmer.....	54
Davidson.....	42
Green.....	22
Brown.....	13

THE NEW COUNCIL.

Ability, vigor and progressiveness are qualities needed in the man who presides over the municipal affairs of a promising town like Moose Jaw. These are qualifications which Mayor-elect Grayson certainly possesses. Coming to Moose Jaw in its early days, he has seen its vicissitudes, and now that it is enjoying a measure of prosperity, every step in advance will enhance his interest in the town. His policy will be one of progress, and his election will infuse new life and energy into municipal administration, and promote the prestige, progress and credit of our town.

Mr. James Simington, who headed the poll, has a large business interest in the town. He will bring into the council energy and push, and will make a painstaking and enterprising councillor.

Mr. C. A. W. Stunt came to Moose Jaw from Whitewood in 1890. His interest is all in the town. He is an accurate and expert accountant, and will be a valuable and useful member of the new council.

Mr. Wm. Hannah is a native of New Brunswick but has made Moose Jaw his home since 1883. He is employed in the C. P. R. Round House. He is energetic and enterprising and will not allow any municipal department committed to his charge to suffer under his jurisdiction.

Mr. W. W. Neeland has served some years on the council board. He was chairman of the Finance Committee in 1892. His ability as a councillor is well known, and his experience in municipal work will be valuable to the new council.

Mr. O. B. Fysh was a member of the council of 1892 and has considerable knowledge of municipal affairs. He has been a resident of the town for over eight years, coming from near London, Ontario.

Mr. Hugh Ferguson has been well and favorably known in Moose Jaw for a number of years. His canny Scotch disposition will probably counteract any scheme for needless expenditure that might crop up. Mr. Ferguson will fit himself readily to the harness and will make a solid, painstaking city father.

The town is to be congratulated upon the election of such a highly efficient body of men as the new council promise to make. It may be confidently hoped that under their regime Moose Jaw will enjoy such a year of progress and prosperity as will place her in front rank among the towns of the Territories.

Mrs. H. Waller, of Carberry, who has been spending her Christmas holidays with friends in town, left for her home on Tuesday last accompanied by Miss Winnie Ostrander.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Annual Meeting and Election.

The annual meeting of the School Trustees of the Moose Jaw School District was held in the school house yesterday morning.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The chairman presented the following report:—
The Trustees of the Moose Jaw Union School have pleasure in submitting to you their Annual Report.

During the present year no unusual changes have occurred; altogether there has been a steady and healthy progress made. You will be able to form an idea of the present condition of the school from the reports of the Inspector for the year. In May last he closed his report as follows: "On the whole the school is now in a much better condition than ever before." In his last report he says: "On the whole you have reason to be proud of your school. Proof of careful oversight from the Principal are everywhere to be met with."

The Teachers are to be commended on the manner in which the discipline of the school is maintained. Throughout the year there was a marked absence of complaints from either parents or teachers, not one having come up before the Board.

With reference to the financial standing of the District, we would state that it is as good if not better than ever before. The debt of the school has been largely decreased and the School Site has been freed from all incumbrances. A careful consideration of the Treasurer's Statement is solicited.

As you are aware the basis of the Government Grant to schools has been changed and we may expect a slight decrease in the grant for 1893. During the past year the grant was sufficiently large to pay 7-8 of the Teachers' salaries the balance of $600 or $150 per room having been paid by the district.

Adopting the suggestions that were made at the last annual meeting we have furnished the building with storm sash and placed a porch in the hallway of the main entrance believing that the saving in fuel will very soon defray their cost.

Another matter that has engaged the attention of the Board is the advisability of having the school grounds bounded by a fence. It is in close proximity to the school and the rights of citizens must be protected. In addition the Board are of the opinion that a well fenced school grounds would add greatly to the appearance of the school. Something might then be done towards beautifying the grounds by planting trees and shrubs.

Your Board wish to refer briefly to the apparent lack of interest taken in the school by parents and others. The school is always open to any one who may wish to inspect the work being done. The teachers will be only too glad to receive those who may honor them with a visit.

In conclusion we wish to state that the importance of maintaining a first-class school in the district cannot be over-rated. Moose Jaw has at present a bright prospect before her and every effort should be made to keep our school up to its present high standing. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Thos. B. Baker

PROPRIETOR

The Old Transferred to the New By Frank Sawyer.

The bitter cold winds of winter, as came and gone,
That brings spring's warm refreshing showers.
A sweet delicious odour rise from the plains,
From the most beautiful prairie flowers.
The bird of song, how they warble in the grass,
Happy and joyful to the Heavens they sing,
Ringing out their own sweet melody.
Then flutter the sun through their wings.
Spring is gone, but not all the flowers.
That summer is to have under her care
The birds have finished their homespun,
Intermingle with flowers everywhere:
The swallow darts o'er the rippling waters,
Catching a fly or spider in its swift flight.
"Look!" the sun is nearing the western horizon,
Gradually it goes, now out of sight.
Summer is gone to leave autumn to reap the harvest,
Of warm sunny spring, and summer with her ban.
The Autumn leaves have taken to themselves,
Bright red, crimson and gold, that no artist can won.
Grain fields look golden, as the sun shines through the stooks
The summer birds they have flew far, far away.
Over hills and mountains, across stream and vale,
To return in spring's warm future day.
Autumn is gone, the snow birds are welcomed,
As they flutter around the door.
Picking up the crumbs and fragments
Chirping with glee for more.
"Hark!" "Listen!" What! do I not hear a bell!
Something new for a Sabbath morn.
Its tone seems familiar as ever,
After a year of natures worn.
Self esteem it hangs, now it can boast,
Erected on a new site and foundation.
After slumbering sound a year away,
Mourning not a note of lamentation.
Clear refreshing prairie air so sweet,
It can keep time with you as the days of old
It chimes just as natural again,
For it is true, true as old gold
Once more it revivifies the worshippers back!
Yes back, though to a new place.
Which God the Heavenly Father as prepared,
Prayers have gone from is people, far and near
Gone heavenly to the Maker in the sky.
Thanking him tenfold, and more.
Praise Him for ever, that reigns on high,

NOVELTIES IN SILVERWARE.

The shell of a clam reproduced in silver makes a pretty butter dish.
Fanciful, roses and ferns worked in repoussé on the back of a silver hand mirror have a pretty effect.
A silver gilt hand mirror of recent importation has an Italian mountain scene in oil showing through a thick beveled glass on the back.
Two squirrels, each engaged in gnawing at a nut, with a plain bar resting on their backs, make a silver knife rest that possesses many attractions.
Quite elaborate and handsome is a silver shaving mug with a plain bright band encircling the top, and with the bottom chased to represent a wicker basket.
A silver napkin ring that is attracting much attention from those artistically inclined represents a broken kettle drum resting on a wrecked gun carriage wheel.
A neat and effective silver pen dish represents the curved fender of an ostrich. At one corner of the receptacle an old appearing owl with averted head is perched.
A helmet of Fifteenth century armor, hand souly chased, makes a beautiful ornament to silver. The pointed visor at the front, on being opened, discloses a cut glass ink stand resting in a bed of puffed silk.
Prominent silverware dealers say that bright repoussé work will soon predominate over the dull and oxidized articles of last season. Some very handsome styles in this class of ornamentation are being produced.
A useful and pretty article for the smoking table is a silver oblong tray bearing three spirit lamps of dull finished metal. Etched on the surface of the tray is a line of words with the words, "It was my last cigar."

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE.

A Few Simple and Handy Made Suggestions for the Holidays.
Holly and mistletoe are the historic Christmas foliage, and they have established the colors for holiday decorations—green, white and red. Boughs and chains of cedar gracefully festooned over cornices are very generally used. Ground glass is exceedingly effective, when it can be obtained.
When holly berries for brightening up the green holiday trimmings are not procurable, a good substitute is rubric oval. Melt two drachms of vermilion in an ounce of rosin and paint this over some pretty large twigs; hold them over a stove, turning them round till the varnish gets smooth, and you have an excellent substitute for the red berries.
To make festooning of evergreens, have the evergreens cut into small twigs and lay them on the floor where a stout cord is stretched out; thread a packing needle with small twine, and with this bind the twigs to the cord, making all safe and strong by occasionally passing the twine through the cord. Work in your holly in patches, so that the effect of the ready berries shall not be lost by sparrows, but in trimming with them, be careful after they are woven, you had better err on the side of thinness, if at all. Heaviness in such decoration is certain to be gloomy.
Spider's webs of gold or silver wire introduced among the green are novel and quite pretty.
A little glass or diamond powder sprinkled on here and there gives a beautiful frosted effect, but should not be within reach of children.
Very much can be done with gold and silver paint in getting up tasteful decorations. Pine cones and acorns (the latter tied in bunches), gilded and silvered and used like pine cones and acorns, look well.
Devices associated with good luck and good fortune are a ball, a wishbone, a horseshoe fastened out of cardboard, covered with evergreen twigs and ornamented with clusters of scarlet immortelles.
Sugar Plums for the Holidays.
For white cream candy, take one pint of boiling water and two cups of granulated sugar. Boil all together for twenty minutes, adding two tablespoonfuls of cider vinegar when it is put over the fire. Try it in cold water; if not brittle, boil a little longer. Flavor with vanilla. Let it cool in a buttered pan. Then pull and cut into sticks.
For French vanilla cream, add to any number of the whites of eggs the same bulk of cold water; beat in confectioner's sugar until stiff enough to mold into shapes with wetted fingers. Flavor with vanilla. Shape as you please and lay on plates, with waxed paper, if possible.
For peppermint turn half a cupful of boiling water upon two cupfuls of granulated sugar. Boil five minutes; stir in a tablespoonful of essence of peppermint; stir over the fire till thick, and then drop from a teaspoon upon buttered paper to harden.
For molasses candy, use one cupful of molasses to one of sugar and a piece of butter the size of an egg, with any flavor that is preferred.
Cold Plum Pudding.
The remains of Christmas plum pudding may be broiled in slices or converted into fritters. But a very appetizing way of disposing of them is furnished by an old English recipe. Butter a deep dish or basin well and line it with slices of cold plum pudding cut so as to fit exactly together, and press them against the dish so they will adhere and not float off. The float off the dish, with a good custard (thickened and allowed to cool) or with any sweet pudding mixture that is preferred. One pint of boiling milk poured upon two ounces and a half of arrow root, mixed smooth with a little cold milk, with the addition of four small eggs, a little ground lemon, two or three bitter almonds or nut flavoring desired, makes a good mixture. Cover the pudding with slices of plum pudding, and bake nearly three-quarters of an hour in a very moderate oven.

Happy at 100.
Mrs. Christian Dordner, who resides two miles east of Lewiston, Ill., recently celebrated her 100th birthday. Two hundred persons, direct descendants of this aged lady, were present on the occasion. Attempted Suicide.

Considerable excitement was occasioned in town on Tuesday evening by the report that a squaw in the Sioux camp east of the town had been poisoned.

In order to give connection it becomes necessary to go back to last week. On Monday following Christmas a squaw complained to the mounted police that a buck had assaulted another squaw brutally, striking her on the head and shoulders with a club. The policeman investigated the case and gave the buck in question a severe talking-to—so much so that afterwards the buck informed the squaw that informed the police, that if she did not stop her husband would perform the job.

On Monday last the squaw attempted to take her life by jumping from the top of three small trees which stood near herself to them. When she fell she discovered the squaw was dead. A squaw companion took her out her cave. After her husband had been in her topee the following day he came into town and brought report of poisoning. The police, a number of citizens drove out to the place and discovered the matter. The woman again recovered.

CHURCH PRESENTATION.

By the Presbyterian Congregation
To Rev. W. L. Clay.

On Wednesday evening a large number of the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church assembled at the house of the pastor Rev. W. L. Clay. After some music and games, refreshments were served, after which Mr. J. H. Ross, M.L.A., read the following address:

To the Rev. W. L. Clay.

We, the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church at the town of Moose Jaw, having learned of your decision to remain as our pastor notwithstanding the call received by you from the wealthy and influential congregation of the Presbyterian church at the town of Perth, Ont., cannot permit the occasion to pass without in some measure evidencing our gratification at your determination and expressing our appreciation of your efforts to advance the interests of our church and congregation.

We are fully cognizant of the fact that the result of your decision is at least for a time a sacrifice of your talents and of your prospects of advancement as a minister of Christ.

We acknowledge that your exceptional abilities in this regard fit you to fill a more important position in the church than a pastorate at Moose Jaw and we therefore feel much favored by your refusal to accept said call and shall ever regard it as an evidence of your true piety and deep regard for our spiritual welfare. Henceforth it shall be our united effort to assist you with increased zeal in the arduous duties appertaining to your pastorate here.

We earnestly wish you and Mrs. Clay a happy New Year and sincerely hope that you may long continue to reside in the midst of us.

We, in conclusion, ask you to accept the accompanying purse as a New Year's gift and as a slight evidence of our esteem and respect for you.

Signed on behalf of the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church at Moose Jaw this 25th day of December 1892.
E. Colpitts, D. McLean,
A. E. Potter, J. G. Chalmers,
J. Kollo, J. M. Simington.

The address was accompanied by a purse containing $100.

Rev. Mr. Clay made a feeling reply in which he expressed his deep sense of the kind feeling breathed in the address.

The remainder of the evening passed pleasantly away with music, games and recitations, etc.

A DOMESTIC DISTURBANCE.

Produced in Moose Jaw by a Regina Amateur Company.

Mrs. Haye's face, A Domestic Disturbance, was produced on Monday and Tuesday evening. It is seldom that an amateur production shows such merit not only in the plot but in the execution. The audience entered very heartily in the spirit of the play and showed their appreciation by hearty applause.

Sophronia Bangs (M. s. Haye) was the life of the piece and kept the audience roaring with laughter by her representation of the whims and caprices of an old maid. Miss Lily Moran as Mrs. Might acted her part naturally and with Mr. Clark Hales as Mr. Might acted a couple of domestic scenes worthy of Mr. and Mrs. Bowser and one involving rather of Darby and Joan. Little Queenie Johnson fairly won the hearts of the audience by her performance. Mrs. Marshall say acted Aunt Nod, etc. in good style. The other members of the company sustained their parts with credit.

With Masonic Honors.

On Friday last the sad intelligence was telegraphed from Quappelle that William Bonatt, long and favorably known in Moose Jaw, was dead. Heart failure was the cause of death. His brother, who lives some miles north of Moose Jaw was immediately sent for.

He left for Quappelle on Friday evening's train and brought the remains back on number one Saturday morning. At 13 o'clock Moose Jaw Lodge A. F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a member, assembled in their lodge room and marched to the house of Mr. Harlan C. Miller where the remains lay. After a short service conducted by Rev. Mr. Stacey, the Masonic Funeral Service was read, after which the remains were taken to the Methodist Church where service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Stacey, the funeral then proceeded to the new cemetery where the remains were interred with full Masonic honors. The brethren then drove back to the Methodist Church and from there marched back to the lodge room. The following resolution was moved and adopted:

Moved by Bro. Hamilton Long, seconded by Bro. J. K. Stevenson: That the members of this lodge desire to extend to the relatives of our late departed Bro. William Bonatt their heart-felt sympathy in the affliction which the bereaved relatives of the Deceased are at this season all too often upon.
